

Digital & Printable Options

Name: _____

Text Message Analysis

Michelle

I forgot to give your jacket back! I will bring it to school tomorrow. Thanks for letting me borrow it.

Don't worry about it. I have more jackets. I'm just glad I had an extra one that you could borrow!

I know! I shouldn't drink anything but water at lunch because I'm always spilling things. Thanks for helping me cover it up!

No problem! I would want someone to do the same for me and I can be quite clumsy.

- How do the two people in the conversation know each other? _____
- Cite evidence from the text that supports your answer to the previous question. _____
- What happened before this conversation took place? _____
- Cite evidence from the text that supports your answer to the previous question. _____
- What conclusion can you draw about one person in the conversation? _____
- Cite evidence from the text that supports your answer to the previous question. _____

Axel

I really feel like you made the right decision. I am so proud to call you my friend.

It was the right thing to do. I'm not going to be mean to people just to impress someone else.

I can't believe he asked you to do that. It just felt so mean. And he thought it was funny. Who does that?

I'm not going to leave someone out I've been friends with for years. That's just wrong.

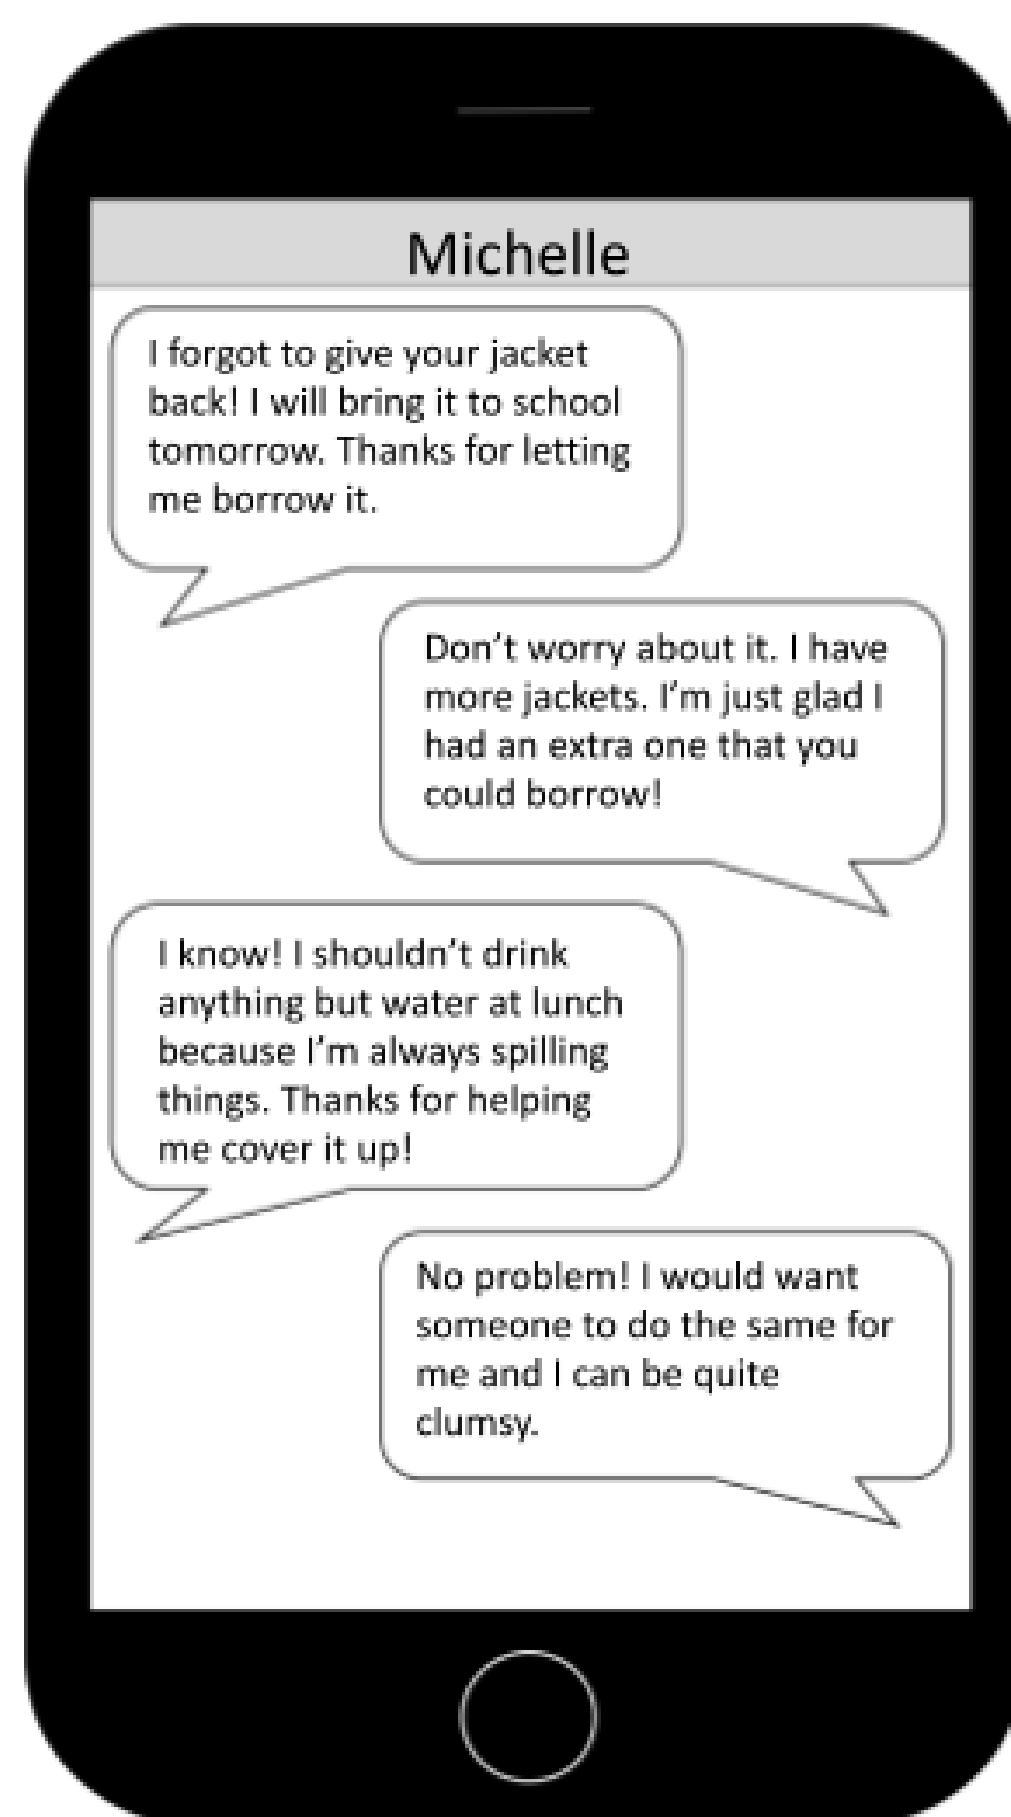

- How do the two people in the conversation know each other? _____
- Cite evidence from the text that supports your answer to the previous question. _____
- What happened before this conversation took place? _____
- Cite evidence from the text that supports your answer to the previous question. _____
- What conclusion can you draw about one person in the conversation? _____
- Cite evidence from the text that supports your answer to the previous question. _____

1

©Copyright Read Write Middle 2019

Engaging & relevant practice for making inferences and citing text evidence!

Text Message Analysis

1. How do the two people in the conversation know each other?

Cite evidence to support your answer.

2. What happened before this conversation took place?

Cite evidence to support your answer.

3. What conclusion can you draw about one person in the conversation?

Cite evidence to support your answer.

©Copyright Read Write Middle