

Name: _____

Text Message Analysis

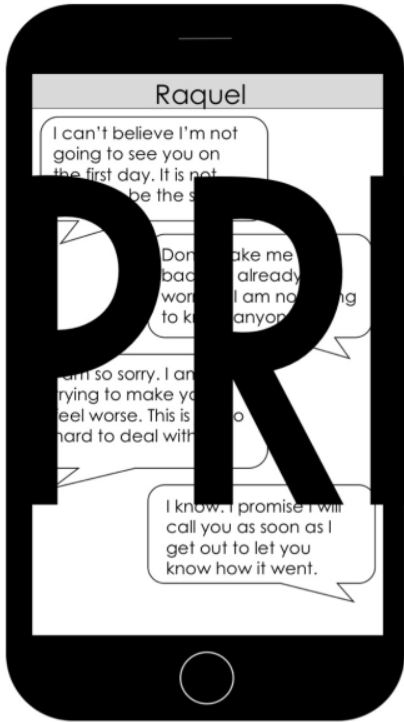

1. How do the two people in the conversation know each other? _____
2. Cite evidence from the text that supports your answer to the previous question. _____
3. What happened before the conversation took place? _____
4. Cite evidence from the text that supports your answer to the previous question. _____
5. What conclusion can you draw about one person in the conversation? _____
6. Cite evidence from the text that supports your answer to the previous question. _____

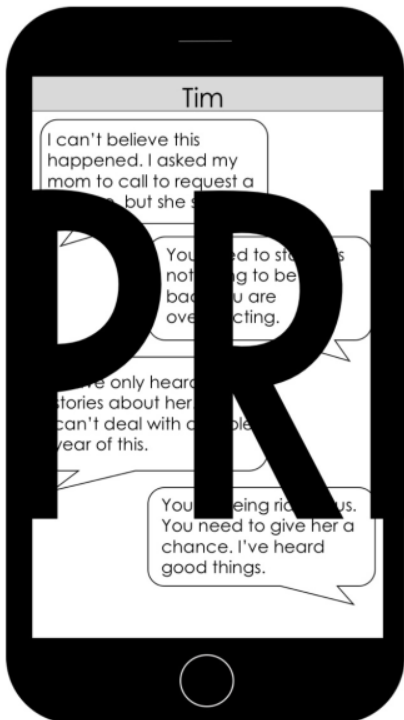

1. How do the two people in the conversation know each other? _____
2. Cite evidence from the text that supports your answer to the previous question. _____
3. What happened before the conversation took place? _____
4. Cite evidence from the text that supports your answer to the previous question. _____
5. What conclusion can you draw about one person in the conversation? _____
6. Cite evidence from the text that supports your answer to the previous question. _____

Text Message Analysis

1. How do the two people in the conversation know each other? They are former classmates.
2. Cite evidence from the text that supports your answer to the previous question. "It's not going to be the same."
3. What happened before the conversation took place? The message recipient enrolled at a different school.
4. Cite evidence from the text that supports your answer to the previous question. "I can't believe I'm not going to see you on the first day."
5. What conclusion can you draw about one person in the conversation? The message recipient is very nervous about starting school.
6. Cite evidence from the text that supports your answer to the previous question. "I'm already worried."

1. How do the two people in the conversation know each other? They are friends.
2. Cite evidence from the text that supports your answer to the previous question. "It's not going to be that bad, you are overreacting."
3. What happened before the conversation took place? Tim found out he was going to be in a teacher's class he's heard bad things about.
4. Cite evidence from the text that supports your answer to the previous question. "I have only heard horror stories about her."
5. What conclusion can you draw about one person in the conversation? The message recipient thinks Tim is overreacting.
6. Cite evidence from the text that supports your answer to the previous question. "You're being ridiculous. You need to give her a chance."